THE following Catalogue of Books being a Collection of the most Curious and valuable Kind, ever yet printed and published here in England, was at first only intended for the private Use and Satisfaction of a Person of high Quality, now erecting a Library in the Country, and in Contemplation of finishing the most perfect Work of this nature among us: But the Design and Draught, as deliver'd in, being well approv'd by many Learned Men, on their Perusal of it, as very useful to the Commonwealth of Letters, if made publick; it has been thought good to print some Part of this laudable Undertaking for the Benefit of all Scholars and others willing to purchase choice Libraries and fine Collections of Books, to which England was never more inclin'd than at present, by the great Examples of the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Somers, Lord Halifax, and many other excellent Patrons of Learning, whose active Virtues and sublime Understandings in this Life will transmit and render their Names and Praises ever sacred and lasting to future Generations, notwithstanding the Barbarous Insults of Rudeness and Ignorance among the Rusticks and other deluded Wretches of this Age, whose most exalted Pleasures and Delights do not extend themselves beyond the Dog-Kennel and Esq; Nob's Bowling-Green.

It shall only farther be observed, that by a Mistake at the Press, Page 36. among the Civil Law Quarto's, Line 9. to P. 37. L. 12. the Books inserted are misplaced, and are to follow Pomponius Mela, at the Bottom of P. 34. Farewell.
